You can follow someone by clicking on their name in the participant's panel and selecting the "follow" option

You can click on a person's name inside of their video to open up their User Menu.

If you're already in a Gather space, go to the control panel at the center bottom of your screen and click on your name to open your User Options.

Viewing Video

When someone first joins your an on-going group conversation, they will appear at the end of your video carousel. Whenever they speak, their video will be brought to the front of your carousel if they aren't already visible on your screen.

Remember) Gather does not record your screen nor keep any record of your video session while you are using the platform.

When you are in Grid View, you can collapse back to the regular Video Carousel by clicking the button in the upper right corner of the screen.

You can navigate through your video carousel by clicking the arrows on either side of your screen.

Another Helpful Tip

- Want to full screen someone else's video? Just click on their video.
- Interaction distance is also sometimes altered by designated private spaces. This allows conversations to only include people inside that space.
- If you need more help, go back to the desk at the entrance or ask a Grad or ask a Helper.
- Refreshing the page will fix most things.
- Have fun!
